

Come to Ring, ring! Ring, ring!

"Hello?"

"Hi Zoe! It's Sarah. I've checked with Mum and she said that you can come over for afternoon tea. We've just made a chocolate cake with lots of sprinkles on top. Can you come?"

"Sure! I'd love to!"

"Great! Listen carefully and I'll tell you how to get here. Turn left at your front gate and walk down Webb Street until you come to the big white house with the red roses hanging over the front fence. Next to this house is a narrow lane shaded by oak trees. Walk quickly down the lane because sometimes there is a hairy, black dog that lurks around looking for stray cats to chase. When you come to the end of the lane turn right into Flint Street. Go down to the pedestrian crossing and cross over. You should be in front of the chemist shop. You can check out the fluffy toys in the window!"

"Mum'll flip if I get any more!"

"I know! Anyway, walk left down past the butcher shop. Turn right into Young Road. Walk down to the little red cottage on the right side of the street. It usually has a white Persian cat sitting on the brick wall. He's really friendly and so soft to pat. After you've given it a pat, take a peep over the wall. You'll need to stand on your tiptoes. There's a beautiful fish pond in the front garden. Wait 'til you see how big the fish are!"

"As big as Dean's?"

"Bigger! But don't hang around for too long, just in case the old
